Four-Way Stops Set On College

Two four-way stop controls on College Ave. were approved by City Council Wednesday night.

The four-way stops will be at 12th St. and 14th St. on College Ave. The program also calls for two-way stop controls on 13th and 15th Sts. on College Ave.

The "package" was recommended on an experimental basis by Adrian Koert, traffic consultant, who said the traffic on College Ave. should be evaluated a year hence. A four-way stop previously was put into operation at 10th St. and College Ave.

Koert explained that the four-way stops should discourage some of the traffic on College Ave. and should aid pedestrian traffic at Hope College.

When asked if this would not put more traffic on Columbia Ave. near an elementary school, he said, "Contrary to public opinion, elementary school children obey traffic rules much better than 'college children'."

The recommendation carried 8 to 1, with Councilman Morris Peerbolt dissenting.

Koert also quipped that closing College Ave. between 10th and 12th Sts. might solve a lot of pedestrian traffic at the college, but he was in no position to make such a recommendation at present. Such a program would involve wider streets and many other factors.

Later Peerbolt asked him about eliminating parking on the east side of River Ave. between Sixth and Seventh Sts. and Koert said he was in favor of removing parking from any major street and would recommend eliminating parking on that block without even a study.

This led Peerbolt to ask that parking be eliminated on River Ave. not only between Sixth and Seventh Sts. but also on the west side between 11th and 12th Sts., the City Hall block. Both requests were referred to the city clerk for drafting into a resolution.

In other business, Council raised the pay schedule for election workers, setting $26 for chairmen, $22 for workers and $2 for attending election school. This is the first change since 1954. That schedule listed $21 for chairmen $18 for workers and $1.50 for attending election school.

Alvin W. Vanderbush and William H. Vande Water were reappointed to the City Board of Canners for four-year terms.

Claims against the city were filed for Violet D. Wirth, Wyoming; Ann Siegrist, 70 West 14th St.; David M. Hacker, 168 West 20th St., and Alfred Von Ins of Hollander Hotel, 234 East Eighth St. They were referred to the insurance carrier.

Council approved a 50-50 cost agreement with the State Highway Department for placing illuminated "no left turn" signs on River Ave. at Eighth St. and on River Ave. at 10th St. for southbound traffic.

On recommendation of the city manager, Council approved a building permit for Speedee Car Wash to alter its pump island at its service station at 24 North River Ave.

January Draft Call Increased

LANSING — The Michigan Selective Service System Monday issued a January draft call for 2,542 men. It was the largest call issued since the heavy buildup in Vietnam in 1965 and 1966.

Ottawa county will send 40 and Allegan county will send 11. Additional troops are needed to replace those men drafted for two years service during the 1965-66 buildup, said Col. Arthur A. Holmes, the state selective service director.

"We know that the calls are going to remain at the January high level, possibly for several months," he said.

In January of this year the draft call was 977. The only 1967 call that approaches next month's number was in August, when 2,129 men were inducted.

In addition to those to be drafted next month, 4,303 registrants will be ordered to take their physicals to determine their physical fitness for service.

There "might be some" men included in the January draft call who destroyed or turned in their draft cards as a protest against the war, Holmes said. He said this is a determination for local boards to make.

Last month the Selective Service announced that it would start drafting men who destroyed their cards and prosecute them if they refused to report. Registrants eligible for induction in January include all single men and men married after Aug. 26, 1965, if they are between the ages of 19 and 26 and are classed 1-A or 1-A-O.

Contract Let For School Additions

GRAND HAVEN — The Board of Education Tuesday night awarded contracts for constructing three additions plus renovations for the senior high school to Pioneer Construction Co. of Grand Rapids at a cost of $686,720. It was low bid of three entered.

The project will be financed by a $650,000 bond issue approved by voters Aug. 14 and a building fund of $550,000 remaining from a previous bond issue.

An addition to the east end of the gym and additions to the music department and auto repair at the north end of the building will be completed by Sept. 1. A third addition to the front of the building for library, office space, classroom and other facilities will be completed by Nov. 1.

Architects outlined preliminary plans for a $325,000 swimming pool, locker rooms and shower rooms for the junior high building. Final plans will be submitted in January. This project will be financed by a bond issue which also was approved last August.

Bright Sunshine Smiles on Holland

It was a beautiful day in Holland Monday. The sun shone brightly, dispelling a heavy white frost which made travel hazardous early this morning. It was up to 41 degrees at 11 a.m.

Predictions said there was little chance of snow.

The high Sunday was 41 degrees too.

A year ago Sunday, the low was 1 above zero.

Local Tax Bills In Mail Friday

Approximately 10,000 winter tax bills will be in the mail Friday for property owners in Holland city, City Assessor Alvin De Haan said today.

The total levy calls for $691,173.30, listing $560,404.66 from the Ottawa county portion of the city and $130,768.64 from the Allegan county portion.

Tax bills this year are based on state equalized valuation, rather than assessed valuation, although both figures appear on the tax bill.

Of the total tax levy, $409,709.12 is earmarked for Ottawa county based on a tax rate of $4.98 per $1,000 equalized valuation. The breakdown lists 4.35 mills for general, .13 mill for intermediate school district and .5 mill for special education.

The Allegan county total of $90,604.91 has a tax rate of $7.63 per $1,000 equalized valuation. The breakdown lists 1 mill for bridge replacement, 1 mill for medical care facility, 5 mills for general, .13 mill for intermediate school district and .5 mill for special education.

Last year the tax rate was 4.73 mills in Ottawa and 6.61 in Allegan, based on state equalized valuations.

Special assessments also are included in the winter tax bills. Special assessments for paving, sewer and water services in Ottawa county total $30,002.82 and in Allegan, $29,641.08, for a total of $59,643.90.

Also on the tax bills are a few school assessments for properties in the city which lie in districts other than the Holland school district. This lists $5,641.15 for Hamilton district, $99.95 for New Groningen district and $34.87 for Federal district.

Taxes this year are based on a total state equalized valuation for Holland city of $93,378,960, compared with $89,197,050 last year.

To Update Portable Hospital

Holland which has had no occasion to use its stored portable 200-bed field hospital will soon receive better equipment.

City Council Wednesday night allocated $600 for loading and unloading a new 200-bed packaged emergency hospital, replacing supplies which had been stored in Civic Center for several years.

The emergency equipment is made available through Civil Defense and its use in event of a disaster will be determined jointly by Civil Defense Director Glenn Timmer and the administration of Holland Hospital. Drug supplies which go with the hospital package will be kept in the hospital pharmacy with supplies to be rotated in an arrangement with the hospital through replacement. Drugs of certain types and brands not used in hospital operations will be replaced when outdated through arrangements with state or federal agencies.

Timmer explained that the new equipment contains a "disaster kit" in which cots and blankets may be used for disasters other than nuclear attack.

Civil Defense has detailed plans in case of disasters. Supplies include a large field tent for hospital use, but plans would call for using Civic Center—if it remains standing, Timmer said — as a hospital.

In other business, Council sold $56,000 in paving special assessment bonds to First National Bank of Holland which entered low bid of 4 per cent. Only one other bid was submitted.

Council authorized condemnation proceedings after the Board of Public Works reported having exhausted all means of securing an easement across the property of Mrs. Harry Deur on 24th St. east of Lincoln Ave. for the trunk sewer main.

Mrs. Deur told Council she feared that a sewer interceptor would drain a pond used for irrigation on the farm, a pond which she said had been put in at great expense, and she was willing to sign only if the city would guarantee water free of charge for such irrigation.

City Manager Gordon Cunningham expressed the hope that an agreement could be reached before going to trial.

Council accepted for first reading a new ordinance updating the electrical code. The new ordinance is based on the 1965 National Electrical code with some amendments.

A letter from Mrs. Ann Wiersma, 592 Pleasant Ave. requesting that her name be withdrawn from a petition for water in Pleasant Ave. was filed.

Petitions for water service in East 32nd St. and in Kenwood Heights subdivision and for sanitary sewer service in Elm Dr. from South Shore Dr. to Beech Dr. were referred to city manager.

Council confirmed action by telephone poll Nov. 16 granting a license to the Salvation Army to solicit funds in the streets from Nov. 24 to Dec. 24.

City Attorney Cunningham was appointed legislative contact man for the 1968 legislative session, following a request for an appointment from the Michigan Municipal League.

Council approved three change orders for the Board of Public Works amounting to an additional charge of $2,414.03 and two change orders for the hospital contract at an additional cost of $2,393.65.

Council extended contracts with the Ottawa and Allegan county library boards for another year in the extension of library services. These contracts involve providing services in return for penal fine monies attributable to the persons who receive the services.

The following gifts to Herrick Public Library were acknowledged: genealogy books from Ed Prins, 26 miscellaneous books from Mrs. Richard Brink, a set of American history books from Clara Yntema and tulip bulbs from the Holland Garden Club.

Also acknowledged were the following gifts to Holland Hospital: electric bed from Mrs. Jack Decker, furnishings for the nurses lounge from the housekeeping guild, five dozen children's bibs from Mrs. Robert Crookery, toys from Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gardner, and a $300 grant from Wyeth Co.

Mayor Nelson Bosman presided at the meeting which lasted an hour and 10 minutes. The invocation was given by the Rev. Gerald Postma of Maranatha Christian Reformed Church.

Police Charge Driver

ZEELAND — Zeeland police charged Maureen Kay Bronson, 29, of 63 East 21st St., Holland, for failing to stop within an assured clear distance after the car she was driving slid off the embankment on Taft St., where the road makes a right turn, and struck a utility pole Saturday.

Pair Injured In 2-Truck Collision

A Zeeland man, one of two injured when a gasoline tanker and a van-type truck collided at M-40 and US-31 Friday, was reported in fair condition Saturday in Grand Rapids St. Mary's Hospital.

Hospital officials said Herbert Dozeman, 30, of 948 44th Ave., remained unconscious, undergoing treatment for a skull fracture in the intensive care unit of the Grand Rapids hospital.

Dozeman was riding in the van with Robert M. Sparks, 48, of 647 Azalea, when the accident occurred around 1:55 p.m. Friday.

Holland police identified the driver of the bulk gasoline truck as Julius Bernard Johnson, 46, of 9999 Perry St., Zeeland. Johnson was not injured.

Sparks was admitted to Holland Hospital for treatment of a broken shoulder and lacerations of the left leg and head. He was reported in "fairly good" condition today by Holland Hospital officials.

Police said Johnson was about to make a left turn from US-31 to go south on M-40 when the two trucks collided. Johnson told police he hadn't noticed the traffic light had turned yellow.

Police said Dozeman was thrown from the van and Sparks had been pinned in the wreckage. Dozeman was first taken to Holland Hospital and reported unconscious and critical at the time he was transferred to the Grand Rapids hospital.

Johnson Praises Viet 'Thank You' Package Project

HUDSONVILLE — President Johnson has endorsed the Christian Reformed Laymen's League snowballing movement to send more than 200,000 "thank you" packages to servicemen in Vietnam.

Dr. Robert Plekker of Hudsonville, president of the laymen's league, has received a letter from the President lauding the project which has become nationwide.

The movement obtained impetus and $40,000 recently by a marathon promotion conducted by radio station WJBL at Holland. Other radio stations will stage similar, lengthy programs to give the cause further momentum, Plekker said.

"I know that this evidence of support for our brave men in Vietnam who carry the burden of fighting for us all will be deeply appreciated," Johnson wrote Plekker.

"The members of the laymen's league and all who co-operated in this project should have a deep sense of pride and positive accomplishment. The people who contributed so unselfishly—and in many cases at great sacrifice—must know how much their backing means to our fighting men," The President wrote.

Allegan School Board Slates Building Session

ALLEGAN — Allegan Board of Education is scheduled to meet with members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee and architects to discuss the nature of the building problem facing the district and the work of the Citizens' Committee.

The meeting is slated Dec. 12 at 8 p.m. in the Senior High School cafeteria.

The Board of Education has hired Davenport Associated, Inc., of Grand Rapids, as architects for the school building program. Richard Wiggins, architect and educational consultant for the firm, is to attend the meeting.

Coho Fishing Is Big Business

The impact of the Coho Salmon on Michigan economy was outlined by David L. Weaver, district fish biologist of the Michigan Department of Conservation at an Early Bird breakfast of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning in Hotel Warm Friend.

A total of 126 persons attended, the second highest attendance at Early Bird breakfasts since breakfasts became a regular monthly feature a few years ago.

"Everybody is for conservation until he is adversely affected by it. Fortunately, everybody has been pleased with the Coho program and it has been a truly gratifying experience," Weaver said.

"It all happened so fast last September and since we had had no real salmon experience in this state before, we made a few errors, but everything has turned out fine and we are looking forward not only to Coho seasons, but also the arrival of King salmon which are even larger than Coho," Weaver continued. "King salmon have been planted and we look for them in 1970. The record King catch is 125 pounds, but we may expect 40 pounders."

He said the Coho spends the first 18 months in the stream in which it spawns and changes to a silvery color in its adjustment to salt water which, of course, is not necessary in the Great Lakes. Then it spends 18 months feeding in the big lakes and returns to spawn at sizes up to 20 pounds.

The Coho is a glutton, mainly eating soft roid fish, and the alewives are a good diet. Weaver could not predict whether the Coho would alleviate the oversupply of alewives which last year died by the millions on shores and beaches. "We believe 1967 was a peak year for dead alewives and with the expected increase in Coho and decrease in alewives, we hope the situation will be in better control next summer," he said.

Weaver gave a strong pitch for solving pollution troubles in Lake Michigan which he said is much like Lake Erie was 15 years ago. "No longer can we take our Great Lakes for granted like the trees and buffalo of years past," He also pointed to the threat of uncontrolled use of pesticides and their possible effect on fishlife.

Weaver said Holland as a resort center on Lake Michigan stands to benefit from Coho popularity once the Coho runs branch out from the Manistee-Beulah-Honor areas.

"The aim of the Michigan Conservation Department is to get people back to nature for their leisure time. Since 50 million people live within a day's drive from the Great Lakes, the tourist industry in Michigan alone amounts to $1.2 billion a year. Tourism has long surpassed agriculture in Michigan, and the centers that offer the best facilities gets the visitor. And 40 per cent of this figure comes from outside the state."

"What with people interested in Coho fishing all over the region, the Chicago visitor would perhaps be more interested in fishing for Coho in Holland than in traveling another 100 miles, but Holland must provide the facilities. You have some fine marinas in your Lake Macatawa, but they are small compared with those across the state. Michigan has 200,000 registered boats, 50,000 of them on Lake St. Clair alone."

Weaver said the Michigan

Conservation Department started the Coho program three years ago, and the September run in the Manistee area was the first in the three-year cycle.

The Michigan Conservation Department received its Coho eggs from Washington and Oregon with some stipulations, among them certain guidelines that plantings be concentrated and that the fish be planted in waters relatively free from pollution — the type that trout can live in. This year, Michigan is hatching some 7½ million salmon eggs and some of the fry will go to Wisconsin, New York and Pennsylvania. Some 300,000 King salmon were planted in the Muskegon River last year, and these salmon will go all over Lake Michigan before returning.

During the question period, Weaver said there is little or no evidence that the Coho are chasing the steelhead out of the spawning streams, or that Coho feed on perch. He also spoke of the Coho Jack, a smaller salmon type, and added that a Coho Jack was caught in the west end of Lake Macatawa about three weeks ago.

He said he was not worried about industrial or municipal pollution in the lakes since the state is enforcing control measures, but is more concerned about agricultural pollution, and to a degree pesticides which he described as an insidious type of killer.

He added that the commercial fisherman is needed in the Coho harvesting. After spawning, these fish die and commercial harvesting just after spawning is needed, "although we expect there will be new restrictions as to gill nets, depths, zones, etc."

Freight Train Blocks Traffic for 20 Minutes

Traffic at the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad crossings at Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Sts. was blocked for some 20 minutes Tuesday when a draw bar, or coupling rod, broke near the center of an eastbound freight train.

C and O officials at Holland said the freight was composed of between 80 and 90 cars. Traffic was reported blocked from 6:15 to 7:34 a.m.

Area Police Nab Robbery Suspects

Three men sought in connection with a Muskegon grocery store holdup were foiled in their getaway attempt Tuesday afternoon and arrested by Zeeland Police Chief Lawrence Veldheer.

The trio was charged with armed robbery Wednesday by Muskegon police. They were identified as Alton S. Edwards, 25, and his 19-year-old brother, James E. Edwards, and Ruby Henry Walker, 33, all of East Chicago, Ind.

Veldheer was conducting an area patrol at Byron Rd. and M-21 with Zeeland Civil Defenseman Ken Haveman, when the trio was spotted around 2:30 p.m. traveling in a white, 1964 model car on M-21, apparently coming from Grand Rapids to Holland.

Veldheer radioed for assistance from Holland police and Ottawa county sheriff's deputies and gave chase until the other police cars were positioned. The suspect was stopped on M-21 near 112th St. at 2:42 p.m. The trio was wanted for questioning in the holdup that occurred 1:35 p.m. Tuesday. The food market was robbed by two men carrying pistols. They escaped with $1,700.

A search of the car revealed rolls of paper money and coins stashed in the springs of both the front and back seats of the car. More rolls of coins were found in the trunk of the car.

Two .38 caliber guns believed to have been used in the robbery have not been found.

The trio was first taken to Ottawa county jail and later turned over to the Muskegon authorities.

Holland police and Ottawa county deputies manned roadblocks while the alert was out, and along with the State Police troopers assisted with the arrest.

Two Cars Collide

Hollan police investigated a two-car collision at Washington Ave. and 32nd St. at 8:45 p.m. Tuesday involving cars driven by Donna Gene Schipper, 17, of route 2, Hamilton, and Imogene Carmack, 30, of 437 West 32nd St.

SERIOUSLY INJURED — A 42-year-old Holland woman remains in critical condition in St. Mary's Hospital, Grand Rapids, undergoing treatment for severe head injuries received in what was termed a single-car, freak accident on 64th St. and 147th Ave. 3:39 p.m. Wednesday. Allegan county sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Joan Cook, of route 5, was northbound on 64th St. when the car went out of control, struck a tree and landed in the field. Mrs. Cook was taken to Holland Hospital and immediately transferred to St. Mary's Hospital. (Sentinel photo)

ACCREDITATION CERTIFICATE — J. Ledge Craig Jr. (right), manager of the North Central district of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, presents a framed certificate of accreditation to William Venhuizen, president of the Holland Chamber of Commerce at a recognition luncheon at Point West Tuesday. Officials Salute Local Chamber

Officials of Holland township, Park township and the city of Holland joined in saluting the Holland Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon Tuesday at Point West on the occasion of the chamber's accreditation by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. More than 100 attended.

The accreditation was announced last spring after three years of evaluating and making improvements. Holland's chamber now is one of 117 accredited chambers among the 2,800 chambers in the United States. Accreditation keeps changing and all accredited chambers are subject to an annual review, plus a comprehensive review every five years. Only three other 42 are in the process of meeting the rigid criteria.

A framed certificate of accreditation was presented to Chamber President William Venhuizen, and 55 smaller framed certificates were presented to board members who served during the three-year period.

J. Ledge Craig Jr., manager of the North Central Division, U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said accreditation is an important milestone for the local chamber. He said the problems of urban living are second only to the No. 1 problem of keeping the pace, and said Chambers of Commerce will play an important part in the next 40 years when urban development in new homes alone is expected to equal all housing since this country was founded.

"Accreditation is more than a symbol; it is a do-it-yourself program of discharging vital responsibility," he said. He added that the criteria for other chambers in Michigan are accredited at the present time. They are Ann Arbor, Kalamazoo and Warren.

Harry R. Hall, president of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, speaking on "Challenge," said chambers must have changing and challenging goals to serve communities. "Fact finding is a prerequisite," he said, "in revising and upgrading your programs as conditions change. Leadership attracts leadership. Continue your high performance in a framework of expectation."

Stuart B. Padnos served as master of ceremonies and Mayor Nelson Bosman gave the welcome. Wooden shoes were presented to the speakers.

Grand Haven Woman Treated for Burns

GRAND HAVEN — Mrs. Ellen Bender, 30, of 820 Penoyer Ave., was released from Grand Haven Municipal Hospital following treatment of burns received in an accident in her home 4 p.m. Tuesday.

It was reported she received second degree burns on the right arm and third degree burns on the left arm up to the elbow and fingers on both hands were reddened.

The incident occurred while she was spraying a pine wreath. Firemen reported no open flames in the room. Fire officials said the pilot light on the hot water heater was off and it is believed the incident may have been caused by fumes from the heater flashing back in the area where she was spraying.

A Holland man was hit from behind on the head by an unknown assailant Monday night, knocked unconscious and taken to Holland Hospital.

Police said Harold Emil Dreuth, 27, of 501 West 22nd St., heard glass shattering at the rear of a neighbor's house around 9:30 p.m. Monday, and on checking, found a person trying to break into the Joe Arens residence at 485 West 22nd St.

Dreuth told police he had nabbed the subject but was hit from behind while trying to hold onto the person. It was not known what Dreuth was hit with.

Police, who are continuing their search for two subjects, said Dreuth passed out while reporting the incident at the scene.

Dreuth was taken to Holland Hospital where he complained of being dizzy. He was x-rayed, treated for bruises to the head and released after examination.

Burning of Mortgage Makes Eventful Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving Day of 1967 will go down in history for the Maple Avenue Christian Reformed Church as an eventful day — the day of the burning of the church mortgage.

Thanksgiving Day marked the climax of a struggle which began 55 years ago when the congregation was organized on May 22, 1913.

In that year the congregation purchased the Fourth Reformed Church building and moved it from its original location on 16th St. and Washington Ave., to the present site, 18th St. and Maple Ave.

During the next few years the congregation grew so rapidly that in 1918 the church was remodeled and enlarged and an annex was added, bringing the seating capacity to 600 from 325. By 1924 the indebtedness of the original purchase and remodeling was fully discharged but again the congregation felt the need for enlarged and more adequate facilities. A "sinking fund" was created. However several events took place which delayed the building of a more adequate sanctuary including depression years and World War II. One half of the funds collected prior to the depression were used for the needs of the poor. However in 1936 the first unit was built and dedicated. It presently serves as the parish house or north wing.

Following World War II the consistory appointed a finance committee and a building committee to begin plans for a new building. On June 10, 1951, the congregation met in the old building for the last time in August of 1952, the new sanctuary was completed. Formal dedication took place March 3 and 4, 1953.

Volleys From Ambush

Remember Diek Medendorp, the man who restored Windmill De Zwaan here?

Well, Diek is still restoring windmills in the Netherlands, and Jaap de Blecourt, manager and head gardener at Windmill Island, visited Diek and his wife Nellie in Zuidlaren a few weeks ago when Jaap went to the Netherlands to help his parents celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary in Garwerd, Groningen.

Jaap spent a day or more with Diek and Nellie in their picturesque thatched - roofed home in Zuidlaren in the shadow of a huge windmill built by Diek's grandfather. The grain mill, the only one left in Zuidlaren, no longer is in operation but Diek entertains hopes of putting it in working order as a tourist attraction. It is about the size of Windmill De Zwaan, and is one of the largest mills in the Netherlands.

Jaap had gone to the Netherlands to surprise his parents—and what a delightful surprise it was. Anniversaries are special occasions in the Netherlands and the relatives and townsfolk pay more attention to them than in America.

Jaap's parents visited him here in Holland a year or two ago, but it was doubtful they would make a return visit here.

While in the Netherlands, Jaap attended the dedication of a restored oil press mill at Zwolle which had been inactive since 1936. Arie de Koning, the Dutch architect who drew the plans for the restoration of Windmill De Zwaan, had done similar work for the Zwolle restoration, and he was present for the dedication. Also present was Dr. Fredrick Stokhuizen, president of the Dutch Windmill Society and author of a book on windmills.

Jaap said one of the side storage sheds is used as a museum. Diek has been working on the Zwolle project at intervals over a year and a half.

Diek also is working on restoring a mill at the village of Ylst in Vriesland. This mill is located on a peninsula and can catch the wind from all directions.

Incidentally, Windmill De Zwaan is now all decked out for Christmas. The 80-foot sails are outlined with white lines and the windmill base is floodlighted more effectively than last year, the first year that the windmill was lighted for Christmas.

Jaap de Blecourt said Maynard Schrotenboer who serves as miller during the windmill season placed most of the lights at the close of the season late in September and Haveman Electric of Holland added finishing touches.

The lighted mill can be seen from the bridge area on North River Ave. since the huge cross sails face that way. An even better view is offered on River Hills Dr. north of Black River.

Everybody's talking about the Coho salmon these days — and it's the cheeriest story on the Michigan tourist front in many a year.

Far less is known about the Chinook salmon, but that's headed for Michigan too.

A clipping sent to William J. Venhuizen from Mrs. Josephine Townes of Alpena tells how 80,000 Chinook salmon eggs have been sent to Alpena from the west coast for incubation and eventual release in Thunder Bay River.

It's an Alpena Community College project that has Michigan Conservation Department blessing and supplemental financial support from the Alpena Chamber of Commerce.

Mature four-year-old chinooks average 20 pounds in weight, with 40-pounders not uncommon

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a satin sheath gown with a chapel train falling from the waist. The skirt, train and bodice were decorated with grape appliques and the illusion veil was secured by a rosebud headpiece. Her bouquet included white roses and carnations placed on a small Bible.

The maid of honor was Miss Betty Kuiper, sister of the bride. Her empire stone green gown was fashioned with a panel attached by cabbage roses. She wore a matching headpiece. In identical attire were the bridesmaids, Diane Allen and Carol Allen. Pamie Wiggers, flower girl, wore an A-line floor-length gown featuring a green velvet top, crepe skirt enhanced with a panel of velvet secured by a cabbage rose. Robby Allen was the ring bearer.

Because of its awesome size and strength, the chinook is rated by most anglers as King of the Pacific salmon.

A recent display at Herrick Public Library that proved particularly interesting was the collection of Mary Gregory glass of Mrs. Bert Wierenga of Holland. Mrs. Wierenga, with the help of her family, has been collecting Mary Gregory glass for 35 years. Her first purchase was a cranberry pickle castor bought in an antique shop in Clinton, Ia., across the Mississippi River from her husband's home town of Fulton, Ill.

Mary Gregory glass is clear and colored, transparent and opaque, enameled with figures and flowers. Although her name is given to this type of glass, Mrs. Gregory did not originate it. She was one of the women hired as a glass enameler at the Sandwich Glassworks in Massachusetts during its final decade of operation.

The glass which dates from 1880 to 1910 and later is descendant of the luxury ceramic wave known as pate-sur-pate. Mrs. Gregory had lost her two children shortly before working for the glassworks and her first pieces were decorated with little cherubs. Later, she painted boys and girls using white enamel.

This is just a reminder to get that 15-minute taped message to sons, brothers and sweethearts overseas for Christmas in the "Voices From Home" program sponsored by the Red Cross. So far, about a dozen have taped messages out of an expected 50 to 60 — at least that was the number last year.

Call the Red Cross chapter house here for an appointment (yes, the staff will accept collect calls) and record your message. A Red Cross worker will take a polaroid color photograph of you and/or your party to include in mailing the tape.

Can There Be Peace
on Earth?
Micah 4:1-7

By C. P. Dame

War - feverish Turks March through Streets of Istanbul chant Death to Greeks and We Want War—these words appeared under a picture in a daily newspaper very recently. As long as this kind of a spirit prevails we will have war. God promised that some day peace will be amongst people.

I. Godliness, not science, will eventually establish peace. The prophets of Israel saw and told about the dark deeds which undermined the nation but they also portrayed a bright future. Micah 4:1-5 and Isaiah 2:2-4 are practically alike. Who wrote first does not matter at all. Micah writes about a mountain, where the temple stood. On that mountain Abraham almost offered Isaac his son.

In the future "the house of the Lord will be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it." The point of these words is that when people will recognize the authority of God and obey His words then peace will come. Peace will not come about through science, or through the U. N. but only then when people long to be taught the ways of God. As long as God is ignored and Jesus Christ slighted wars will ravage this earth. "He will teach," says the prophet, "and people.

II. Peace is constructive. The words, "and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks" speak of a transformation. Swords and spears will be changed into useful implements—the destructive will become constructive, the martial will become pastoral.

When people have the peace of God in their hearts peace will come easier. What can we do? We can take the sword of prejudice and will-will and hatred out of our hearts, and make room for faith and love. Micah tells about the time when every man shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree and fear will be absent. The vine and the fig tree were a common source of drink and food and looked upon as symbols of peace and plenty. We all hope and pray for that time to come.

III. The mercy of God abounds. The prophet probably speaks of the time when the people returned from Babylon to Judah. Note the deeds of God—"will I assemble" and "I will gather" and the people who will receive special attention—"her that halts" and "gather her that is driven out" and her that was cast off"—all needy people. Jesus gave special attention to the lame, blind, deaf, sinners and outcasts.

The people who returned from Babylon were deeply religious. From this group came the Saviour, the Prince of Peace. Some day the prophecy of Micah will be fulfilled. Why do we believe this? Because we believe in Jesus, who will reign from sea to sea.

Upon recommendation of the policy advisory committee, the board approved the hiring of Linda Kievit as a teacher and Maria Vasquez as a program aide. The policy advisory committee consists of four members of the corporation and five parents of children enrolled in the Day Care Center.

This increase in staff and enrollment was made possible by a grant received from the Office of Economic Opportunity in June, 1967. West Ottawa Wins, 65-63 League Game

West Ottawa's basketball team fought off a determined fourth quarter Wyoming charge here Friday night to win its opener, 65-63 in the West Ottawa gym.

The victory gives the Panthers a 1-0 O-K Red Division League overall.

After enjoying a 43-28 lead late in the third quarter and a 45-31 margin at the end of the third period, the Panthers saw their lead dissipate in the fourth period as Wyoming came within two points with 43 seconds to play.

The Vikings, led by Fred Hoffert's 12 points in the fourth quarter kept chipping away at West Ottawa's lead and had cut the margin to 61-55 with two minutes to play.

Hoffert fouled out but the Vikings trimmed the margin to 61-57 with 1:47 left, 63-59 with 1:15 to play and then pulled within two points with 43 seconds to play.

The score stayed this way until 13 seconds remained when Len Loncki made two free throws to put the Panthers four points up. Tom Miller made a basket as the game ended to put Wyoming within two.

West Ottawa, after the game was tied twice including the last tie of 9-9 in the first quarter, took the lead and never again trailed. The Panthers led 14-12 at the quarter.

Greg Dalman's nine points helped the second quarter drive which put West Ottawa in front, 33-29. Then came the third quarter surge when the Panthers pushed the margin to 15 points.

The winners made 21 of 40 free throws while Wyoming hit 17 of 31. Loncki led the Panthers with 22 while Dalman had 13 and Jim Visser 10. Hoffert had 20 for Wyoming.

West Ottawa plays at Forest Hills in a league game next Friday night.

Cars were driven by Marilyn Bosgraft, 16, Hudsonville, and Karen R. Poortenga, 23, also of Hudsonville. Miss Bosgraft, headed south on 12th Ave., allegedly pulled into the path of the Poortenga car headed west on M-21.

Carol Werkema and Sally Bomhof, both 16 and both of Jenison, passengers in the Bosgraft car, were taken by ambulance to the hospital and were released after treatment for cuts and bruises of arms, face and legs. Miss Bosgraft sought her own treatment for minor injuries. Miss Poortenga was not injured.

Ottawa sheriff's officers charged Miss Bosgraft with failure to yield the right of way.

Floyd Brady Scores 33 in 79-61 Loss

VALPARAISO, Ind. — A sizzling second half by Valparaiso's nationally ranked Crusaders spoiled the upset notions of Hope College Saturday night as the Flying Dutchmen dropped their season basketball opener 79-61 before more than 3,000 fans.

Coach Russ De Vette's Dutchmen held a slim 30-29 lead at the intermission break after dominating the entire first half. The advantage was short-lived, however, as the Crusaders came back with four quick baskets in the opening minute of the second half leaving Hope on the short end of the score board the rest of the night.

Hope senior Floyd Brady was the game's standout. The 6-3 Chicagoan led all scorers with 33 points hitting 14 of 26 attempts from the floor and five of ten free throws. He also was the leading rebounder with 14.

Brady single handedly put Hope into the lead during the first half. He put the Flying Dutchmen ahead 17-10 scoring twelve of the points and had 19 tallies at halftime as Hope enjoyed its slim one point advantage.

Valparaiso ranked 13th nationally in the UPI pre-season small college poll, wasted little time in taking their second half lead.

Senior guard Dick Jones clicked on a 20-foot jump shot to put Valpo ahead to stay 31-30. The alert Crusader defense then stole the ball three times before Hope could get past the mid-court line and turn the steals into baskets and a 37-30 lead.

The closest Hope came after that was 46-42, but again Valpo erupted with a rally to pull ahead 52-42.

Winning Valparaiso scored 24 baskets in just 36 attempts during the second half for a nifty 66 per cent clip. The Crusaders finished with a 46 per cent average after Hope's harassing man-to-man defense had held Valpo to a frigid 27 per cent clip in the first half.

Hope, while shorter than Valpo at every position, held a 31 to 22 advantage in rebounds. The Flying Dutchmen scored 25 baskets in 55 tries for 45 per cent.

Valpo was paced with a balanced scoring attack. Guard Bruce Linder finished with 19 points including nine field goals in 13 attempts while Jones added 15, Sheldon Ferguson 13 and Tyrone Williams 12.

Behind Brady was co-captain Gary Rypma with 10 tallies. Barry Schreiber and Bruce McCreary were next with five apiece.

Mona Shores Falls, 99-73 To Holland

MUSKEGON — The Sailors never anchored; the Dutch set the adrift to flounder on a sea of mediocrity.

Thoroughly dominating the game, Holland High's basketball team drowned Mona Shores, 99-73, Friday night to win their first Valley-Coast Conference game and even their overall mark at 1-1.

The Dutch led at the end of each quarter, 21-15, 43-38 and 69-50.

The Sailors held a small lead midway in the first period, 13 to 10, but the determined Dutch chipped away to regain the lead which they never again relinquished. But it was more than determination that sparked the Dutch; it was skillful playing and controlled ball by the starting five.

The deceptive moves of starting guards, junior Dave De Witt and senior Dan Shinabarger, periodically stunned the Sailors, frequently enough to also demoralize the Shores' offense.

Shinabarger gathered 24 points, slightly under game leader, forward Phil Halladay, who tossed in 25 for the Sailors. Halladay was the most imposing threat against the Dutch last year also.

The game was won on the boards with Holland snatching 23 offensive rebounds and 37 defensive rebounds. The Sailors grabbed only eight offensive and eleven defensive rebounds, Holland's 6'4" center, Dave Gosse, took 17 rebounds besides adding 18 points.

Most of Holland's scoring came within ten feet of the basket with Shinabarger, who usually scores on long jumpers, forced to hit from the outside only twice during the game.

The Dutch worked the ball in on their fast break for the easy shots and even Sailors' intermittent use of the press failed to hinder the Dutch scoring power.

Midway in the final quarter coach Don Piersma put in all substitutes who added 11 points in the last four minutes, against the frustrated Sailor starters.

Ball control errors were evenly matched with Holland committing 19 errors and Mona Shores 18.

Holland hit on 16 of 37 from the field in the first half for 44 per cent while the Sailors connected on 15 of 38 for 40 per cent. In the second half Holland improved their shooting percentage to 48 per cent, making 24 of 49 shots. The Sailors hit for only 31 per cent making 13 of 42.

Youth Pleads Guilty

Danny Rozales, 17, of 246 East Ninth St., pleaded guilty in Holland Municipal Court Friday to a charge of Contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and was put on probation for two years. He must serve 15 days in jail and must pay $5 a month oversight fees. The alleged offense which involved a 13-year-old girl occurred Nov. 30.

The Holland Carvers, after holding leads of 15 points early in the fourth period, and a ten point, 118-108 lead with 3:25 remaining, survived a late rally by the Columbus Comets, to record a 122-120 win Saturday.

The game was played before 1,000 fans in the Holland Civic Center.

Coupled with Lansing's victory over Grand Rapids, the Carver's win moved them within a half game of the Western Division lead, with a 3-1 league record.

Playing his best game of the season, 6'10" center Billy (The Hill) McGill led the Carvers, as he netted 38 points on 17 baskets in 26 attempts, including eight straight in the first quarter. McGill was also the leader in rebounds with 16.

It was Henry Hughes who saved the Carver win, though, as with 1:49 remaining he scored the final Holland basket, giving them a 121-114 lead. After the Comets narrowed the margin to 121-120 on baskets by player-coach Joe Roberts and Arvesta Kelley, Willie Merriweather sank a free throw for the final 122-120 score, with 23 seconds remaining.

The Comets then worked the ball around for a shot which Jim Doughty took, and missed, and Hughes grabbed the rebound with four seconds remaining, to give the Carvers the win.

McGill, with his uncanny hook shot, kept the Carvers in the lead most of the first period, in which he scored 17 points. The period ended with the Carvers holding a 37-29 advantage. Roberts had 12 for Columbus in the period.

The closest the Comets could come in the second period was within six points, as McGill, Bob James and Hubie Marshall scored eight, six and six points for the Carvers. Ron Sepic kept the Comets in contention with nine points in the period.

McGill had 27 points in the half, hitting on 13 of 17 shots. The second half found the Comets double, and at times, triple teaming the former Utah All-American, but he still managed four more baskets in nine attempts. The Carvers led at the half 68-57.

A basket by Kelley at the 5:27 mark in the third quarter, narrowed the Carver lead to 80-73, but baskets by Marshall, Hughes, Merriweather and Marshall again, more than offset two more Kelley baskets, and the Carvers again led 88-77 with 3:26 to play in the quarter. The period ended with the Carvers enjoying a 96-83 margin.

The stage was then set for the hectic finish, which found the Carvers hanging on at the end. Roberts and Kelley paced the Comet comeback, as they scored 12 and 11 points respectively in the final quarter. McGill had six and James and Merriweather five each for Holland.

In addition to the strong showing of McGill, Hubie Marshall played an outstanding floor game, along with scoring 26 points. James added 21 points for the Carvers. McGill, Merriweather, Hughes and James were strong on the boards, as were Roberts, Doughty and Sepic for the Comets. The closeness of the game is indicated by the statistics. The Carvers took 117 shots and hit on 52 for 44.4 percent, while Columbus made 51 of 120 for 42.5 per cent. In rebounds, the Comets led 68-67. At the free throw line the Carvers hit 17 of 27 and Columbus 18 of 28. Sixteen personal fouls were called on the home team and 18 on the Comets.

In other league games Saturday, Lansing remained undefeated by downing Grand Rapids 133-123; Battle Creek defeated Pontiac 161-131; and Chicago recorded its first win in edging Muskegon 120-115.

Brilliant Performance by Duo Is Hit at Century Club

Members and guests of Century Club received with enthusiasm the program of Christmas music performed with brilliance and perfection by Anne De Pree Reising and Edna Hollander Ter Molen, Monday evening in the Commons Room of Western Theological Seminary.

Opening the program with two arias from Handel's "Messiah," Mrs. Reising, soprano, continued with Paul Hindemith's literal translation of Matthew II in his "Cum natum esset." This modern composition in a minor key had the overtones of a chant.

Mrs. Ter Molen chose two works from Chopin and Tchaikovsky's "The Snow Maiden" which she performed with controlled power and lighthearted touch on the piano.

The radiance of these accomplished young musicians was infectious and the applause complimentary as the artists appeared for the third portion of the program, a group of international carols.

Dr. Charles Hutter, professor of English at Hope College, joined the soprano and pianist on the soprano recorder creating an atmosphere of enchantment for the arrangement by James Mack of the Spanish carol, "Noche de Encantos." He used an alto recorder to accompany Mrs. Reising and Mrs. Ter Molen for the Mexican carol, "El Rorro," also arranged by Mack.

Mrs. Reising included Niles and Horton's arrangement of the Appalachian carol, "I Wonder As I Wander," in this group.

The adoration expressed in "Jesu Bambino" by Pietro Yon and "Cantique de Noel," by Adolphe Adam lifted the spirits to the Holy Night which is Christmas. The audience responded to join in singing "Silent Night." Mrs. Reising sang a delightful arrangement of "White Christmas" as an encore.

Carl Harrington presided at the meeting, introduced the guest artists, extended holiday greetings to the guests and invited them to join in the social hour which followed the program.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed buffet table arranged by Mrs. Titus Van Haisma in a holiday motif of silver and gold.

Members of the social committee included Dr. and Mrs. Lester Kuyper, Dr. and Mrs. Van Haisma, Mrs. W. C. Snow, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Hollenbach, Misses Adelaide and Geraldine Dykhuizen, Mrs. J. H. Den Herder and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Vander Werf.

Next meeting of the Century Club will be a dinner meeting at Holiday Inn on Jan. 8, 1968.

Mrs. D. Du Mond Hostess at Meet Of Xi Beta Tau

The Xi Beta Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its regular meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Douglas DuMond.

Mrs. Herb Johnson presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Gordon Cunningham reported on the recent card party which was sponsored by the three Holland chapters.

Mrs. Frank Bronson, chairman of the Valentine dinner, gave a report on the plans which her committee has made on the forthcoming event.

Continuing with the cultural theme for this year, "The Grand Tour," Mrs. Henry Mast presented the program on Iceland and Greenland. Contrary to its name, Iceland is an island of volcanoes and hot springs, and its climate is tempered by the Gulf Stream, although there are large areas of ice fields and glaciers dominating the south and southeast coast. Fishing is its largest industry, accounting for ninety percent of its export trade, and modern methods and equipment are used. It became a Republic in 1944, and is governed by a president who is elected for a four-year term.

Iceland has an advanced educational system, with no illiteracy, and has produced several writers, including Halldor Laxness, who won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1955, noted painters, sculptors and composers.

Greenland, the world's largest island, is separated from Iceland by the Denmark Strait, and with about 85 per cent of the island covered by a permanent icecap, only its coastal regions are suitable for human habitation.

Formerly a colony, it became a part of Denmark in 1953, and its population is largely Danish and native Eskimo. Their chief occupation is seal hunting and cod fishing, but recently fish canneries, freezing plants, shipbuilding and other industries have been established. Mrs. Mast concluded her program with excerpts from the book, "Vagant Viking" by Peter Freuchen.

Mrs. DuMond served coffee and dessert from a table which was festively decorated in a holiday theme. The next meeting will be a Christmas dinner party at the home of Mrs. Robert Long.
